

If You Believe

If you believe: Meeting job expectations should be a joyful experience, this is your place.

If you believe: Time is a God-given treasure, and wasting time is unacceptable, this is your place.

If you believe: Your job is crucial to the success or failure of the organization, this is your place.

If you believe: Making contact with families is an act of service in faith, this is your place.

If you believe: Inviting everyone to learn about our services is an act of favorable kindness, this is your place.

If you believe: Proactive outreach in order to tell our story of the advantages of planning ahead is good ministry, this is your place.

If you believe: Follow-up with a family is an act of Christian charity, this is your place.

If you believe: Describing every possible scenario in leading a family to an informed decision is being a good servant, this is your place.

If you believe: Working hard and smart is living the Gospel, this is your place.

If you believe: Good ministry and good service are compatible, this is your place.

If you believe: Working for a Church organization is rewarding and invigorating, this is your place.

If you believe: You are a servant of God, and helpful to His people, this is your place.

cfcs

Living Our Mission